Herts Help

Herts Help are coordinating support for all vulnerable people in the county who are struggling to get medication and food during the coronavirus outbreak.

This service will aim to help all people who are struggling, not just for those who are self-isolating. This includes families who are struggling because of the needs of their children – whether that be due to shielding a family member with underlying health needs, or due to a child's unpredictable behaviours in public making it hard to ensure social distancing.

For any family who is worried about how they will get food or medication, they can contact Herts Help to discuss whether support can be made available.

Contact Herts Help on: 0300 123 4044 or email info@hertshelp.net
